T-Mobile, Sprint deal close

REUTERS

 ${f T}$ -Mobile US Inc (TMUS.O) is close to agreeing tentative terms on a deal to merge with Sprint Corp (S.N), people familiar with the matter said on Friday, a major breakthrough in efforts to merge the third and fourth largest U.S. wireless carriers.

The transaction would significantly consolidate the U.S.

telecommunications market and represent the first transformative U.S. merger with significant antitrust risk to be agreed since the inauguration of U.S. President Donald Trump in

The progress toward a deal also indicates that T-Mobile and Sprint believe that the U.S. antitrust enforcement environment has become more favorable since the companies abandoned their previous effort to combine in 2014 amid regulatory concerns.

The latest development in the talks between T-Mobile and Sprint comes as the telecommunications sector seeks ways to tackle investments in 5G technology that will greatly enhance wireless data transfer speeds. Japan's SoftBank Group Corp (9984.T), which controls Sprint, and other Sprint shareholders will own 40 to 50 percent of the combined company, while T-Mobile majority owner elekom (DTEGn.DE) and the rest of T-Mobile shareholders will own the majority, the sources said.

SoftBank founder Masayoshi Son met with Trump late last year and said in February that the Japanese firm should benefit from Trump's promised deregulation.

A merger would create a business with more than 130 million scribers, just behind Verizon Communications Inc (VZ.N) and AT&T Inc (T.N). Revenues would top $70 billion and analysts say there would be massive scope to cut costs.

SoftBank's Son abandoned an earlier attempt to acquire T-Mobile for Sprint in 2014. Under that deal, SoftBank would have been in control of the merged company, with Deutsche Telekom becoming a minority shareholder.

Since then, T-Mobile has outperformed Sprint under Chief Executive John Legere, who would lead the combined company.

Kim's Rejoinder to Trump's Rocket Man

SEOUL, South Korea — Responding directly for the first time to President Trump's threat at the United Nations to destroy nuclear-armed North Korea, its leader called Mr. Trump a "mentally deranged U.S. dotard" on Friday and vowed the "highest level of hard-line countermeasure in history."

The rejoinder by the leader, Kim Jong-un, who is about half as old as Mr. Trump, 71, added to the lexicon of Mr. Kim's choice of insults in the escalating bombast between the two.

"A frightened dog barks louder," Mr. Kim said in a statement, referring to Mr. Trump's speech at the United Nations General Assembly on Tuesday in which he vowed to annihilate North Korea if the United States were forced to defend itself or its allies against it.

"He is surely a rogue and a gangster fond of playing with fire, rather than a politician," Mr. Kim said.

Trump's Travel Ban to Be Replaced by Restrictions Tailored to Certain Countries

President Trump's ban on travelers from six majority-Muslim countries is set to be replaced as soon as this weekend with more targeted restrictions on visits to the United States that would vary by country, officials familiar with the plans said on Friday.

The new restrictions, aimed at preventing security threats from entering the United States, could go into effect on Sunday after the conclusion of a 90-day policy review undertaken as part of the administration's original travel ban. Though the restrictions would differ for each country, people living in the targeted nations could be prevented from traveling to the United States or could face increased scrutiny as they seek to obtain a visa.

In the end, officials said that some of those countries added measures to improve security for passports and to better identify potential terrorist threats. Those countries will not be included in the new restrictions, said the officials,

WASHINGTON - Squeezed by rising living costs, a record number of Americans — nearly 1 in 2 — have fallen into poverty or are scraping by on earnings that classify them as low income.

The latest census data depict a middle class that's shrinking as unemployment stays high and the government's safety net frays. The new numbers follow years of stagnating wages for the middle class that have hurt millions of workers and fami-

"Safety net programs such as food stamps and tax credits kept poverty from rising even higher in 2010, but for many low-income families with work-related and medical expenses, they are considered too 'rich' to qualify," said Sheldon Danziger, a University of Michigan public policy professor who specializes in poverty.

"The reality is that prospects for the poor and the near poor are dismal," he said. "If Congress and the states make further cuts, we can expect the number of poor and low-income families to rise for the next several years."

Congressional Republicans and Democrats are sparring over legislation that would renew a Social Security payroll tax cut, part of a year-end political showdown over economic priorities that could also trim unemployment benefits, freeze federal pay and reduce entitlement spending. Robert Rector, a senior research fellow at the conservative Heritage Foundation, questioned whether some people classified as poor or low-income actually suffer material hardship. He said that while safety-net programs have helped many Americans, they have gone too far, citing poor people who live in decent-size homes, drive cars and own wide-screen TVs.

"There's no doubt the recession has thrown a lot of people out of work and incomes have fallen," Rector said. "As we come out of recession, it will be important that these programs promote self-sufficiency rather than dependence and encourage people to look for work."CBS News correspondent Byron Pitts told the story in November of the Struble family. They are college educated, career-holding members of America's vast middle class. They had a combined annual income of $85,000. But in November of 2009, Todd lost his job, and hasn't had a steady paycheck since. They now have only an estimated $25 in their savings account, perhaps another $100 in their checking. U.S. Mayors Report 25% Need Emergency Food Help

Mayors in 29 cities say more than 1 in 4 people needing emergency food assistance did not receive it. Many middle-class Americans are dropping below the low-income threshold — roughly $45,000 for a family of four — because of pay cuts, a forced reduction of work hours or a spouse losing a job. Housing and child-care costs are consuming up to half of a family's income.

States in the South and West had the highest shares of low-income families. including Arizona, New Mexico and South Carolina, which have scaled back or eliminated aid programs for the needy. By raw numbers, such families were most numerous in California and Texas, each with more than 1 million.

The struggling Americans include Zenobia Bechtol, 18, in Austin, Texas, who earns minimum wage as a part-time pizza delivery driver. Bechtol and her 7-monthold baby were recently evicted from their bedbug-infested apartment after her boyfriend, an electrician, lost his job in the sluggish economy.

After an 18-month job search, Bechtol's boyfriend now works as a waiter and the family of three is temporarily living with her mother.

"We're paying my mom $200 a month for rent, and after diapers and formula and gas for work, we barely have enough money to spend," said Bechtol, a high school graduate who wants to go to college. "If it weren't for food stamps and other government money for families who need help, we wouldn't have been able to survive."

Millons Affected By Housing Bubble Burst

Since the housing bubble burst, nearly 4 million American homes have been lost to foreclosure. An estimated 1.6 million children will be homeless at some time during the year - 38 percent more than at the start of the recession. As CBS News correspondent Ben Tracy explains, unemployment has driven some families to the southern California desert, where a barren old WWII training ground in the desert has become a place for many to park their troubled lives.

Unemployment has driven some families to the southern California

About 97.3 million Americans fall into a low-income category, commonly defined as those earning between 100 and 199 percent of the poverty level, based on a new supplemental measure by the Census Bureau that is designed to provide a fuller picture of poverty. Together with the 49.1 million who fall below the poverty line and are counted as poor, they number 146.4 million, or 48 percent of the U.S. population. That's up by 4 million from 2009, the earliest numbers for the newly developed poverty measure.

The new measure of poverty takes into account medical, commuting and other living costs. Doing that helped push the number of people below 200 percent of the poverty level up from 104 million, or 1 in 3 Americans, that was officially reported in September.

Broken down by age, children were most likely to be poor or low-income — about 57 percent — followed by seniors over 65. By race and ethnicity, Hispanics topped the list at 73 percent, followed by blacks, Asians and non-Hispanic whites.

Many Working Families Are Hurting Even by traditional measures, many working families are hurting.

Following the recession that began in late 2007, the share of working families who are low income has risen for three straight years to 31.2 percent, or 10.2 million. That proportion is the highest in at least a decade, up from 27 percent in 2002, according to a new analysis by the Working Poor Families Project and the Population Reference Bureau, a nonprofit research group based in Washington.

Among low-income families, about onethird were considered poor while the remainder — 6.9 million — earned income just above the poverty line. Many states phase out eligibility for food stamps, Medicaid, tax credit and other government aid programs for low-income Americans as they approach 200 percent of the povertv level.

The majority of low-income families

62 percent — spent more than one-third of their earnings on housing, surpassing a common guideline for what is considered affordable. By some census surveys, child-care costs consume close to another one-fifth Paychecks for low-income families are shrinking. The inflation-adjusted average earnings for the bottom 20 percent of families have fallen from $16,788 in 1979 to just under $15,000, and earnings for the next 20 percent have remained flat at $37,000. In contrast, higher-income brackets had significant wage growth since 1979, with earnings for the top 5 percent of families climbing 64 percent to more than $313,000.

A survey of 29 cities conducted by the U.S. Conference of Mayors being released Thursday points to a gloomy outlook for those on the lower end of the income scale. Many mayors cited the challenges of meeting increased demands for food assistance, expressing particular concern about possible cuts to federal programs such as food stamps and WIC, which assists low-income pregnant women and mothers. Unemployment led the list of causes of hunger in cities, followed by poverty, low wages and high housing costs.

Across the 29 cities, about 27 percent of people needing emergency food aid did not receive it. Kansas City, Mo., Nashville, Tenn., Sacramento, Calif., and Trenton, N.J., were among the cities that pointed to increases in the cost of food and declining food donations, while Mayor Michael Mc-Ginn in Seattle cited an unexpected spike in food requests from immigrants and refugees, particularly from Somalia, Burma

Among those requesting emergency food assistance, 51 percent were in families, 26 percent were employed, 19 percent were elderly and 11 percent were homeless.

"People who never thought they would need food are in need of help," said Mayor Sly James of Kansas City, Mo., who cochairs a mayors' task force on hunger and homelessness.

The United Nations Association Of The United States of America (UNA-USA) Is Dedicated To Educate, Inspire And Mobilize American Citizens To Support The United Nations

September 7, 1950 was a momentus day in the history of the United Nations and 4-H when 4-H Club members Mary Ann Long, 19, of Shelby, Virginia and Charlotte Ingram, 15, of Ellendale, Delaware, present a United Nations flag to President Harry Truman as Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt (far left) looks on.

About The United Nations Association of the United States of America (UNA-USA)

The United Nations Association of the United States of America (UNA-USA) is a membership organization dedicated to inform, inspire, and mobilize the American people to support the ideals and vital work of the United Nations. For 70 years UNA-USA has worked to accomplish its mission through its national network of Chapters, youth engagement, advocacy efforts, education programs, and public events. UNA-USA is a program of the United Nations Foundation. UNA-USA and its sister organization the Better World Campaign represent the single largest network of advocates and supporters of the United Nations in the world.

Mission Of UNA-USA

We are dedicated to educating, inspiring and mobilizing Americans to support the principles and vital work of the United Nations, strengthening the United Nations system, promoting constructive United States leadership in that system and achieving the goals of the United Nations Charter.

UNA-USA's History

UNA-USA works closely with the United Nations Foundation and its sister organization, the Better World Campaign, to strengthen the U.S.-UN relationship. These current partnerships continue a long history of UNA-USA helping bolster American support for the UN.

The American Association for the United Nations, UNA-USA's predecessor organization, grew from the League of Nations Association in 1943. A group of prominent citizens, including the first executive director, Clark M. Eichelberger, activated the association to promote acceptance of the Dumbarton Oaks proposals in the late years of World War II. Among the association's early actions was a national tour by a number of US representatives to spread the word and gain support for American adherence to the Dumbarton proposals, which led to the creation of the UN.

teaching students about international affairs through Model UN/ Global Classrooms programs, clearing minefields in formerly worn-torn nations, building schools and water wells in deprived areas, providing immunization for children, educating the public about the United Nations, developing cultural understanding, and teaching conflict resolution.

When First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt, a member of the association's board of directors, completed her term as a US representative to the UN General Assembly in late 1951, she walked into the association's offices and asked for something to do. Her offer was gratefully accepted, and in early 1953, she established an office at the association's headquarters.

This was the quiet beginning of a major campaign in which Mrs. Roosevelt carried the message of the American Association for the United Nations across the country through personal appearances, recruitment speeches and fund-raising efforts that continued until her death in November 1962. She was elected chairwoman of the board in 1961.

In 1964, the association merged with the US Committee for the United Nations, a group of 138 national organizations supporting the work of the UN, thereby creating the United Nations Association of the United States of America. Since then, several distinguished Americans have served in positions of leadership at UNA-USA. These include Arthur J. Goldberg, former Justice of the US Supreme Court and US permanent representative to the United Nations; James S. McDonnell, former chairman of the McDonnell-Douglas Corporation; Elliot L. Richardson, former US attorney general and US representative to the Law of the Sea Conference: William Scranton, former governor of Pennsylvania and US permanent representative to the United Nations; Cyrus Vance, former secretary of state; and John C. Whitehead, former deputy secretary of state.

In 2010, UNA-USA formed a strategic alliance with the UN Foundation. Under the new alliance UNA-USA continued as a robust membership program of the Foundation. Together, UNA-USA and the UN Foundation are pooling their talents to increase public education and advocacy on the work of the UN.

The United Nations Association's offices are located in the International Trade Center - Houston.

MAYOR'S UPDATES ON CITY'S REMOVAL OF STORM DEBRIS

LANDFILLS WILL OPERATE AROUND THE CLOCK, FREEING UP MORE TIME FOR DEBRIS COLLECTION

HOUSTON - Mayor Sylvester Turner presents the following updates on the city's removal of storm debris from homes and other buildings in the city: At the mayor's request, Gov. Greg Abbott has arranged for the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality REPORT DEto allow Houston's landfills to operate 24 hours a day to accept flood debris. The change will allow debris collection trucks to deposit debris at temporary sites during the day and then transfer it to landfills at night. That means the trucks will be able to spend more daytime hours collecting debris in neighborhoods.

When will the debris at my home be collect-

Collections are taking places throughout the city, which is working to provide as much information as possible about scheduling for each area. Information about the schedule for each address or block is not available throughout the city at this point. The city recognizes the need to collect all debris as soon as possible following the record-high amount of rainfall produced by Hurricane Harvey.

Why wasn't ALL my debris collected when trucks came through my area?

Some residents may have more debris than can be collected in one truckload. Additional collection trips may be necessary. Once the first pass is made, any remaining or additional debris must be moved to the curb to be collected by the city in subsequent trips. Check Solid Waste Management's website www.houstontx. gov/ solidwaste for debris collection updates.

Why can't the city pick up debris in my yard or driveway?

City collection vehicles can only reach debris if it is within 10-15 feet from the curb. Seehttp://www.houstontx.gov/ solidwaste/ CurbsideDebrisPDF. pdf for more instructions.

■ 屆亞室運首次增設場地單車 入 項目,由於國家隊及日韓等 單車運動強國均未派隊,總教練 沈金康希望藉這次比賽讓年輕小 將汲取更多國際賽經驗。

賽後,本期望與師妹在決賽 上演香港德比的李慧詩表示: "我很想與她 (馬詠茹) 在決賽 相遇,但我仍為她感到驕傲,當 然她還有大量改善空間,未來一 定要更投入練習。"

對於其他年輕隊友, Sarah 認為他們備戰未夠集中: "我有

仍需努力。其實隊友們可透過亞 室運知道自己和其他國家選手的 差距,特別是男隊要幾經波折才 踩入8強。他們之後要多重溫比 賽錄影,才能從比賽中學習;而 不是抱着來玩的心態,我看得出 他們不夠集中。"

另一邊廂,在田徑賽場,隨 着壓軸登場的高澔塱於男子三級 跳遠決賽以第10名完賽後,香港 田徑隊以1金3銅史上最佳戰績結 束這次土庫曼之旅。

田徑隊領隊陳文孝對港將的 表現非常滿意: "滿意的原因 是,除獎牌數外,從7月到現在 短短兩個月的時間裡參加了亞錦 賽、世大運、全運會及亞室運四 個大賽,但運動員未有鬆懈,仍 非常努力,力爭做到最好。另一 滿意的地方是,這次香港共派出 11名(田徑)運動員參賽,大部 留意每位短途隊友的比賽,他們 分都能晉級決賽或複賽,相當難

> 陳文孝認為, 即使國家隊派出一 線選手、日本亦派 隊參賽,以港隊這 次奪牌成績,仍有 力與他們一比高

據李晨透露,拍攝《空天獵》由 於資金有限,而且拍攝過程大多在野 外,所以拍攝過程十分辛苦,"拍戲 的時候經常轉場幾十公裏,拍攝的地 方甚至都沒有地名,都是多少號多少 有次15天沒有熱水,全組600多人住 了8個賓館,因爲偏遠的地方,沒有 那麽大的賓館,其實讓我睡大街都可 以,關鍵是把戲拍好

德華《追龍》首映辣評小鮮肉 我還能說什麼?我靠臉這麼多年"

王晶執導的黑幫電影《追龍》昨晚媒體場 看片後頗受好評,尤其是劉德華在片中的"逆 天顏值"再次虜獲不少女粉絲的心。所以在今 天的首映禮上,有媒體向他提問"帥了35年作 何感想",以及"對靠臉吃飯的小鮮肉怎麽看 ? 華仔的回答讓人不禁感嘆"姜還是老的辣 ,他壹臉"委屈"地說:"我還能說什麽 我靠臉這麼多年。不要介意人家說那麼多,總 會有賣天可以沖到我這個年紀,大家開始發現 我的演技。"

事實上,不僅"跛豪"甄子丹和"雷洛" 德華在片中有了光彩,王晶也有望憑借《追龍 》擺脫"爛片導演"的稱號。博納董事長於冬

裏面提的跛豪,都只有壹點點,我壹直覺得這兩個人物應 該有很多的交集,所以希望把他們交集的戲劇性組織起來拍 壹個戲。" 所以這次找到劉德華冉演雷洛,請幾乎從不演又 派的甄子丹演大毒梟跛豪,促成兩位明星的首次合作。王晶 還特意拜訪了"跛豪"的家人,在片中大膽用了人物真名。

場看來真的名不虛傳。"劉德華則借此機會爲兩人 "以前很少有人說我演技好打得好,只說我帥;對於子丹 ,大家也是更多關註他的打戲而忽略他用心表演的壹面。所 以這次希望這壹次觀眾們可以把關註點放在我們的演技上。 不是我偏心,子丹的表現絕對超出大家的期待。

發布會上,於冬再次表達了"希望晶哥在香港金像獎第壹 次提名最佳導演"的願望,同時感謝聯合導演關智耀,關智

於冬還爆料稱,爲了宣傳《追龍》,他們特意用壹首劉 德華曾經翻唱過的經典金曲《浪子心聲》剪了壹版預告片 片中跛豪與雷洛兩人在金錢與權勢堆砌的帝國中沈浮,與
